

THE JENKINS INSTITUTE

“Serving God’s Servant’s”

Monthly Report - July, 2021

We hope that you all had a wonderful Independence Day and that July will be a great month for you. We continue to be very thankful to those of you who have given or pledged support to our work within the past few weeks. If you have any questions or concerns, please call, text, or email us. (see below) We are always glad to hear from you.

One of the highlights of our work, at least for us is the weekly Preach Today Podcast for ministers. We typically host this podcast live each Monday morning at 10:15. There are times that we record it early and we have had to change days due to scheduling conflicts. This podcast is watched by hundreds of preachers each week. Recently we have enjoyed having Travis Bookout from Maryville, TN talk about his new book on the Gospel of John. This week our guest was Michael Whitworth from Brandon, FL discuss his new book on Hebrews, “The Son’s Supremacy.”

We continue to work on our two BETTER Preaching Conferences that will take place in the fall. The first one will be BETTER Southwest focused on preachers from Texas and Oklahoma. The second will be at Heritage Christian and involve many preachers from the Southeast.

One of our focuses over the years has been our work in helping congregations locate preachers. We have done this through the Scoop Blog and through contacts from elders who enlist our help. We have talked for a number of years about expanding this area of our work. We are developing a group of preachers who will serve as resource men for congregations during times of transition. We will have a more complete report about this exciting addition to our work in the next few weeks.

We appreciate each of you for your encouragement, support, and friendship.
